Liz is a versatile, highly motivated, reliable and flexible professional with a varied skill set.

Her 23+ years industry experience mean she is well equipped to rise to most challenges. Whilst being a specialist showcaller she has a 'get the job done' mentality and is always willing to muck in and help outside this remit where required. Her corporate work includes projects for FTSE100 companies in sectors including pharma, automotive, telecoms, financial & professional services together with the highest profile agencies and in theatre with high profile creative teams on major public and theatrical events.

Liz had a formal training in stage management at the Central School Of Speech & Drama London 1982-84 and worked in theatre showcalling west end musicals including Starlight Express, opera and ballet including The Bolshoi & Kirov as well as working in repertory theatre. This background followed by 15+ years corporate experience leaves her with the ability to operate effectively and calmly in high pressure environments and with masses of production experience, cueing shows with a high level of technical complexity and producing exceptionally well delivered and creative events.

Liz is foremost an organiser and administrator and this key skill unpins all areas of her work and roles. She has an understanding of process, a love of detail combined with a broad production understanding which serves to make her an extremely useful member of any team. Her successful roles as Production Coordinator for Andrew Lloyd Webber at the Really Useful Theatre Company and Head of Show Administration at The Millennium Dome demonstrate her abilities in this area.

Liz is a flexible and methodical worker with a pragmatic attitude, the ability to prioritise workloads, manage budgets and deliver in a highly effective way. She has excellent people skills and enjoys client management - working on a strategic level enabling clear message communication through the use of clever production and high impact and relevant visual content as well as supporting speakers in their presentation development and performance. Her age and experience leave her well placed and comfortable to work at senior management level and her diplomatic skills and 'big picture' view aid her in becoming a trusted and respected player in any production team and to any client so, whatever production support you may need she probably fits the bill.
